THE "BELLE OF THE BALL."

Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty."
The reason is easy to find: Rare Perfumes lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place;

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE.

The "Belles" all know our stock of "society odors" is most complete.
One thing is certain—you may forget us, but the remembrance of our DELICATE, RARE and LASTING perfumes will linger longer with you than the memory of the "last rose of summer."

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Ned McLaughlin is home from Washington, D. C., and will remain until after election.

—Miss Nellie Racer and Miss Lou Dye left Thursday for Akron, where they will spend several weeks visiting friends.

—Miss Flora Fuller, of Portsmouth, is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Protsman, West Side.

—Big bargains in underwear at the Bee Hive Store.

—Mayor Meisenholder, Marshal Parlin and Driver O'Neil, of the fire department, deserted their posts Thursday to take in the Canton excursion. The virtue of the cause in which they went will excuse the dereliction.

—There is now a probability that the Marietta-Dennison game of football will be played here Saturday as originally scheduled. Dennison wired Thursday night that they would come upon receipt of railroad tickets.

—Mrs. Wm. G. Way and Mrs. Arthur Metcalf, of Marietta, were guests of Mrs. Geo. McDonald yesterday.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

—On Tuesday, Oct. 20th, a reunion of the survivors of Co. D, 63d Regt. O. V. I., was held at the home of W. H. Mayguckin, in Beverly. The following comrades and their wives were present: Captain William Cornell and wife, Chauncey, O.; Capt. G. B. Bartlett and wife, Waterford; A. F. Henderson and wife, of Iowa; H. Beckett and wife, Becketts; Daniel Wilson and wife, Luke Chute; J. T. Shuman and wife, Claytown; F. A. Gallatin and wife, Reinsville; J. F. Keyhoe and wife, Beverly; W. H. Mayguckin and wife, Beverly. Also S. Gilpin, Luke Chute; R. S. Mason, Relief; C. M. Wilson, McConnellville; S. Essex, Reinsville.

—Seventy-five cent Sailors for 49 cents all this week at the Bee Hive.

—Mr. Frank Ketter is down from Columbus visiting friends and relatives.

—Mrs. A. C. McKee, of Caldwell, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. J. Lund.

—Mr. Louis P. Shafer, one of Marietta's well known young men, was united in marriage Thursday evening to Miss Katharine Sutter.

—Mr. Harry Ridings, advance agent of a "South Before the War" company, was in the city Thursday, making arrangements for the appearance of the Company here on the evening of October 29th.

—In the November number of Scribner's appears the portrait of Marietta's Mr. Herbert Minshall. He is artistically represented descending a staircase with "Miss Jerry" on his arm. The illustration is one of many taken from photographs made by Alexander Black for his picture-play, "Miss Jerry".

—Mrs. Chas. A. Ludey will return from Caldwell Saturday, after a visit of two weeks with her sister, Mrs. F. M. Martin.

—A daughter was born Thursday morning, the 23d, to Mr. and John Spaulding, West Side.

—Conductor Paden, of the C. & M., has been suffering from a badly sprained ankle.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stats and daughter, Susie, who have been at Newells Run the past month, left Thursday morning for their home at Davisville, Summit county.

—For millinery goods go to the Bee Hive.

—Captain Z. J. Nixon, an officer of the Grant county Soldiers, Indiana, Soldiers' Home has been visiting friends in Marietta and Washington county since Friday last. He will return Saturday.

—The advance sale of seats for the Amateur Minstrel Show which is to be given at the Auditorium Tuesday evening, October 27th, were put on sale yesterday and its outlook is very bright for a good house. Its performance is given for the benefit of the Women's Home and it promises to be the event of the season. Mr. Hendricks has written a one act farce for the occasion entitled "Marietta vs. Wittenberg, or After The Ball", which is said will be a great feature of the show. This farce will include the full strength of the company.

—The Diamond Pants Company is rejoicing in the possession of a new ten-horse power gas engine of the Fairbanks-Morse make. It is a beauty, and drives the concern's numerous machines with ease.

—A curious sentence is printed in Kirkman's Grammar, published in 1829, a copy of which is possessed by the writer. This grammar is destined to occupy a place in history from the fact its contents were mastered by Lincoln while he was a grocery clerk. The sentence referred to, which follows, contains the word "that" six times in succession in one place and three times in another and yet is correct grammatically: "The tutor said, in speaking of the word that, that that that that lady parsed was not the that that that gentleman requested her to analyze."—[Ex.]

—For underwear, hosiery, gloves, mittens, towels, towelings and table cloth goods go to the Bee Hive.

—J. W. Brabham commenced his sixth term of school at Upper Lowell last Monday. Mr. Brabham has taught the parents and the children of the parents in the same house, and the old house will not have to stand much longer, nor will he be very much older until the grandchildren can come to the same school. No intimation as to his age.—[Beverly Advance.]

—Go to the Bee Hive for underwear, hosiery, gloves and mittens.

—Prof. C. C. Middleswart spent Thursday and Friday of last week in town shaking hands with his many friends, who were pleased to see him recovered from his late serious illness. He expects to attend law school at Ann Arbor, Mich., the coming winter. His many friends wish him success.—[Matamoras Mail.]

—Special sale at the Bee Hive Friday and Saturday.

—The Canton excursionists arrived home at 1:30 this morning.

A Pleasure Trip.

On the 16th of October with my wife and boy I started for Chicago by way of Cincinnati. On the way I was surprised at the small number of domestic animals in sight. The herds of cattle which were so common in former years were gone, and in their place would be a few cows and some horses for working the farm. I saw but one colt following the dam from home to Chicago, and the time is not far distant when the demand for draught horses will exceed the supply.

The city itself in its growth and magnitude is a marvel to a granger like myself and the idea of traveling 20 miles to cross it is almost incredible. Everything is on a scale to correspond with the size of the place. Stores have acres of floor room in which thousands of clerks are busy, and one building (the Marquette) employs 6000 persons. I visited the immense stock yards which covers 640 acres and has pens and sheds for handling 30,000 cattle, 50,000 hogs and 40,000 sheep. The whole is floored and much of it roofed, with roadways on the ground and overhead to facilitate the moving of stock. The receipts today were light, consisting of 2500 cattle, 19,000 hogs and 17,000 sheep. I was forcibly struck with the contrast between the Ohio and the Indiana farmer on the route. In Ohio one sees around the house a garden fenced in, fruit trees, barns, sheds and conveniences, and as you cross the Miami river they disappear and for 25 miles in a region of limestone hills, which produce as fine fruit as can be grown in the Ohio Valley, we see poor houses and worse barns, and a few scraggy fruit trees which will not produce enough to supply a family. Of course the first thought is, what causes this wide difference. My theory is that it is an illustration of the influence of heredity. Ohio was settled by the thrifty Yankee who was taught industry and economy and Indiana by the poor shiftless whites of Tennessee and the Carolinas and the characteristics of the two people are plainly shown after the lapse of a century. T. W. Harvey got a fine second Cow Run sand well on the Brau farm on Long Run Wednesday night. The well is over a mile from any production and opens up a fine lot of territory. Two deep wells have been drilled on the lease, but they were both failures. A number of wells will be drilled on the lease at once.

The Clark Oil Co's well on the Carroll farm at Cairo was gotten into shape Wednesday night and is showing up for about 75 barrels per day.

Kelly & Moebly's well on the Frank Hendershot farm was shot yesterday and is showing up for about a 50 barrel well. This well has inspired a confidence in the field that has not previously existed among the oil men and will be the means of a lot of new work starting.—Journal.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 223 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trial Bottles at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

B. F. Dyar.

Mr. B. F. Dyar, a man well known to the people of Washington county, died at his home about six miles above Marietta, on the Muskingum, on Wednesday morning, the 21st instant. Mr. Dyar had reached the advanced age of 79 years, but up to within a short time he had shown very considerable activity. He was a square, upright, good citizen who commanded the greatest respect of all who knew him.

A MARIETTA MAN

Has a Novel Experience With An old Acquaintance.

If ordinary mortals and Marietta mortals, are no exception, get a cinder in the eye, or if some disagreeable wound or compound fracture of a limb falls to their lot, every available means is employed to dislodge the former and the best known expedients are used to bind up or set the latter. If the average citizen has a corn or backache he wants to get rid of it as long as it is an annoyance, but if it eases up a little and licks with him for a short time the anxiety to part with it diminishes in a direct ratio to the ebbing.

Take backache for instance. It is generally a little thing at first but if not attended to in time, it invariably leads to future trouble. This need not happen to any citizen of Marietta. Be guided by neighbors' advice. Read this:—Mr. F. M. Longley, of No. 206 Putnam Ave., says:—"I have had attacks of kidney complaint for a long time but during the last five years they have been more severe and almost continual. I need not go into all the particulars of the symptoms. Everybody who has had disordered kidneys knows all about it. What to do when suffering is of more importance. As I was a long time on the Police Force and am well acquainted in Marietta my advice may be the means of helping a lot of citizens who are enduring misery not only when engaged in their daily calling but even during their intervals of rest. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure them. I got a box at W. H. Styer's drug store and from the results obtained I am safe in saying there is no kidney remedy like them. I only wish I had known about them sooner and they would have saved me from a pile of suffering."

What Doan's Kidney Pills have done for others, they will do for you. They are sold for 50 cents a box. If your dealer doesn't keep them write us. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
